

PCS TERMS

Approving Official: Head of Organization who approves and authorizes payment of permanent change of station moves.

Common Carrier: Private sector suppliers of air, rail or bus transportation.

Continental United States (CONUS): The 48 contiguous States and the District of Columbia.

Commuted Rate: The rate provided by GSA to the employee when the employee makes his/her own arrangements for transporting household goods between points within the continental U.S.

Dependent/Immediate Family: Any of the following members of an employee's household at the time he or she reports for duty at a new station or performs travel for the government: 1) spouse; 2) children, under 21 and unmarried or incapable of self-support; 3) dependent parents of either spouse; and 4) dependent siblings, adopted children, grandchildren, legal minor wards and other persons under the guardianship of either spouse. "Parents" and "siblings" include stepparents and step siblings.

En route Travel and Transportation of Employee and Immediate Family Allowance: An allowance for travel (including per diem) and transportation expenses of the transferred employee and immediate family for en route travel between the old official station and the new official station.

Enter on Duty Date (EOD): The date the employee physically reports for duty (actually on a site to perform work).

Government Bill of Lading (GBL): An invoice that is sent to the selected moving company by Department of Energy's transportation specialist. This invoice is used by the moving company to list the employee's household goods. The invoice is calculated and submitted to DOE's travel office to audit and pay.

Government Contractor-issued Individually Billed Charge Card: A Government contractor-issued charge card issued to authorized employees to pay for official travel and transportation expenses for which the charge card contractor bills the employee.

Homesale Program / Home Marketing Incentive Payments: An incentive paid to an employee who participates in an agency homesale program and meets other conditions in FTR 302-14.5. The employee is taxed on the amount of the incentive and will not receive a Withholding Tax Allowance (WTA) or Relocation Income Tax (RIT) Allowance.

Househunting (HH) Trip: An allowance for travel (including per diem) and transportation expenses of only the transferee and/or spouse for one round trip to the new official station locality to find permanent residence quarters to rent or purchase.

Intergovernmental Personnel Act (IPA): An act to facilitate the temporary assignment of personnel between the Federal Government and States, local governments, institutions of higher education, Indian tribal governments, and other eligible organizations.

Locality Rate: Rate prescribed by General Services Administration for a particular geographic area.

Miscellaneous Expense Allowance (MI): An allowance for defraying certain expenses associated with discontinuing residence at one location and establishing a residence at a new location. Costs include disconnecting/connecting appliances and utilities; cutting, fitting rugs/draperies; forfeiture losses on medical, dental, food locker contracts that are not transferable; automobile registration; and drivers' license.

Mobile Home Allowance: An allowance for movement of a mobile home for use as a primary residence when movement is authorized instead of shipment and temporary storage of household goods.

New Appointee: Any person newly appointed to the Government service, including student trainees.

Non-temporary Storage: Storage of household goods while the employee is assigned to an isolated or remote location within or outside the CONUS to which the employee cannot transport household goods. Property is stored either in available Government-owned storage space or suitable commercial or privately owned space obtained by the Government.

Official Station: The location of an employee's permanent work assignment.

Per Diem Allowance: A daily payment for lodging, meals, and related incidental expenses used instead of reimbursement for actual expenses.

Permanent Change of Station (PCS): The relocation of an employee to a new official station or post of duty for permanent duty.

Post of Duty: An official station outside CONUS.

POV: Privately owned vehicle.

Property Management Services Allowance: An allowance paid by the agency to the employee or directly to a relocation company to manage the employee's residence as a rental property. The employee is taxed on the amount of expenses whether the agency paid directly to the employee or to the relocation services company.

Real Estate Transactions and Unexpired Lease Expenses: Expenses borne by the employee in connection with the sale of a residence at the old duty station; the purchase of a residence at a new duty station; and the settlement of an unexpired lease at the old duty station.

Relocation Income Tax (RIT) Allowance: A reimbursement calculated in Year 2 and paid to the employee to cover the additional tax liability (Federal, State and local taxes) as a result of certain moving expenses furnished in-kind or for which the Government provides reimbursement or a relocation allowance to the transferred employee not covered by the Withholding Tax Allowance paid in Year 1.

Relocation Services Allowance: Agency payments made to a private company under a contract with an agency to assist a transferred employee in relocating to the new official station. Amounts the agency pays to a relocation services company on behalf of an employee may be taxable to the employee.

Service Agreement: An agreement which indicates the employee will remain in Government service for 12 months from the EOD.

Standard CONUS Rate: Rate prescribed by General Services Administration for any location within CONUS that is not included in one of the defined localities or areas for which a specific rate is prescribed.

Temporary Change of Station (TCS): The relocation of an employee to a new official station for a temporary period (not less than 6 months, nor more than 30 months) while the employee is performing a long-term assignment and subsequent return of the employee to the previous official station upon completion of that assignment.

Temporary Duty (TDY) location: A place, away from an employee's official station, where the employee is authorized to travel.

Temporary Quarters (TQ) Subsistence Expenses: An allowance to reimburse an employee for expenses such as lodging, meals and incidental expenses incurred by the employee and immediate family during occupancy of temporary quarters. [(Not authorized for a transfer to a foreign area (See Department of State regulations for foreign area temporary quarters subsistence expense.))]

Temporary Storage: Storage of household goods at origin, destination, or en route in connection with transportation to, from, or between official station or posts of duty or authorized points. Storage is provided instead of furnished quarters or a quarter allowance and is allowed only when storage is incident to transportation of household goods at Government expense.

Transferee: An employee transferring from one official station to another within the same Government agency or between two different Government agencies.

Transportation of Household Goods Allowance: An allowance for transportation (including temporary storage) expenses for movement of household goods from the old official station to the new official station. Items such as live animals, automobiles, perishable items and other items as set forth in FTR 302-1.4(j) are specifically excluded from the definition of household goods.

Transportation of Privately Owned Vehicle (POV) Allowance: An allowance for transportation of a motor vehicle not owned by the Government and used by the employee or immediate family to an official station within or outside the CONUS. The agency may also pay for emergency storage of the vehicle when it is transported at Government expense and when it is determined that the immediate family and household goods should be evacuated.

Travel Authorization: Written approval to travel on official business.

Travel Management Center: A company under contract with an agency to arrange travel services for Federal employees on official travel, including tickets and transportation, and reservation of accommodations.

Travel Voucher: A written claim for reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of official travel.

Withholding Tax Allowance (WTA): A reimbursement or payment calculated in Year 1 for moving expenses made to the employee to cover the employee's Federal tax withholding obligations each time covered moving expense reimbursements are made that result in a Federal tax withholding obligation.

Year 1. The calendar year in which reimbursement or payment for moving expenses is made to, or for the employee.

Year 2. The calendar year in which a claim for the RIT Allowance is actually paid.
